Northstar Speedway

moving to Butte in 2008!!!

From Northstar Speedway Website:

“Yes, the rumors are true. North Star Speedway will forever close its doors at the end of the 2007 season. But fret not, race fans. We will have a BRAND NEW facility, co-located with Alaska Raceway park in the Butte. Things are still in the VERY early planning stages, but rest assured, it will be bigger, better, and faster than any oval you've ever seen (well, maybe not as big as Daytona, but still...) “
